His Salute Is Fired to the Flag as Commodore Kraussman Gives the Order.

One of the features of this match was the fact that Church and Mathey, whose Yacht Club was formally commissioned gyesterday afternoon. For nearly a year the Harlem yachtsnen have been practically homeless, their old house having been burned down om May 29 last, the day before their annual regatta. The new house is of concrete construction, is attractive looking and faces the west. The anchorage is in front of the house and yesterday several yachts were at their moorings.

Commodore Harold W. Kraussman, who owns the power yacht Zlo, gave the order to masthead the burgee at 5 o'clock and a salute was fired to the flag. Anong those at the opening ceremonies were Vice-Commodore Arthur H. Hall, Rear-Commodore Robert S. Haydock, Secretary Edward Schmidt, Treasurer John F. Jarchow, J. J.
